100TH GAME

Two interceptions late in the game led to two Monmouth touchdowns as the Fighting Scots defeated archrival Knox College 14-0 in Galesburg, Ill., on Nov. 4, in the 100th meeting between the two teams.

With the victory, Monmouth retained the Bronze Turkey trophy — since 1928 the symbol of supremacy in the rivalry — and tied the all-time series at 45-45-10.

Jon Nelson, a sophomore halfback from Altona, Ill., scored both Scots' touchdowns during the final six minutes of an otherwise scoreless game.

Until this victory, Monmouth had never led or tied the series. The Scots have won the past four meetings.

The game was played before an estimated 4,500 fans in the Knox Bowl and capped the Fighting Scot's third consecutive Midwest Conference South Division title and an 8-1 regular season record.

The series began in 1891 and is the second oldest rivalry among NCAA Division III schools west of the Allegheny Mountains. Among such schools, only Kalamazoo and Albion of Michigan have played more times.

Monmouth College captains are: (12) Darren Sweeney, (58) Mike Jones, (59) Mike Herman, (15) Craig Anderson, (57) John Helm, and (63) Joe Courtney.

MARCHING KAZOO BAND

The Sigma Phi Epsilon Marching Kazoo Band has been entertaining us for approximately ten years. The Sig Eps are showing us their version of a band. Left Doug Gormely will always strut down the streets in those lovely shoes; Below left: The whole gang being

To the left you can see that our gang is having fun. Homecoming game was a disappointment for all of us considering the score was Monmouth 20 and Coe 50.

HIGHLANDERS

The Monmouth Highlanders were established as the mascot of Monmouth College in 1953 by interested Alumni who had long wanted a bagpipe band. Mr. Tom Livingston, was the first instructor of both a band in Peoria and the Monmouth College Highlanders. The band began with donated uniforms of various tartans. Many students were interested in the Highlanders at that time. Throughout the 60's and 70's the Monmouth College Highlanders went to competition in Alma, Michigan and the Macalester games in Minnesota. Today the Highlanders are still together even though we are a much smaller group wearing the same uniforms donated in 1970. We are recognized as the Monmouth College mascot during Homecoming, Scots Day, the Bobby Burns Dinner, Honors Convocation, Commencement and a few other events during the school year.

WINNERS!!!!

The traditional Sigma Phi Epsilon and Zeta Beta Tau football game cannot be traced to when it was first started. These guys show great SPORTSMANSHIP because they can play a game and still remain friends. The game ended with a score of Sigma Phi Epsilon 14 and Zeta Beta Tau 0.

To the right the Sig Eps are planning their strategy for winning. Above Jamie Ector tries to get away from Todd Stevens.

The "Little Theater" has brought many performances to Monmouth College but as we are moving into the "90's" we must move on to bigger and more advanced technology. We want to take this time to thank everyone who contributed to the Wells theater.

MONMOUTH COLLEGE

In the picture above you see the Monmouth College sign which displays a traditional view of our college. Below we see a picture of our alumni manor. The manor and the people that are involved with it bring our college up to the standing we deserve. The people who work there work with our Alumni in supporting the college and preserving our campus. The manor this year was able to give the go ahead on building our new Wells theater, and hopefully the Bobby Dunlap project will be in progress soon.

PI BETA PHI AND KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA DUO

Pi Phi and Kappa Duo has been a tradition at Monmouth College since 1990. To the left; you can see how Pi Phi's and Kappa's get along so well.

To the left; Here you can see Matt Ghrer, Renee Soderstrom, and Steve Morrell getting along perfectly.

To the right; In this picture you see Debbie Carlson and her date also you see Allison Morse and her date having the time of their lives.

Eric Warren, Katie Bass, Bruce Hannon, Kate Boecker, Todd Nelson, and Erica Mowitz are having a good time considering their date are all from the same fraternity Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The reason for the duo is because the two were founded here at Monmouth College. Kappa Kappa Gamma was founded October 13, 1870. Kappa had six founders and they are Hannah Jeanette Boyd, Mary Louise Bennett, Mary Moore Stewart, Martha Louisa Stevenson, Susan Burley Walker, and Anna Elizabeth Willits. They decided their flower would be the fleur-de-lis. Badge would be the Golden Key, their colors were dark blue and light blue, and from there Kappa has remained a respected organization on this campus.

Pi Beta Phi was founded on April 28, 1867 by twelve founders. The founders for Pi Phi are Libbie Brook Gaddis, Ada Bruen Grier, Clara Brownlee Hutchinson, Emma Brownlee Kilgore, Fannie Whitenack Libby, Rose Moore, Jeannie Nicol, Inez Smith Soule, Fannie Ann Thompson, Jennie Horne Turnbull, and Nancy Black Wallace. The founders decided on Wine and Silver Blue were to be the colors, the Golden Arrow was to be the badge, and the wine carnation was to be the flower. They too stand as a well respected organization at Monmouth.

Matt Glasnovich seems to be enjoying the evening.

To the right; BAAC is having the time of their lives in front of a huge crowd.
Bottom right; Our alum's can't seem to stay out of trouble "where's the fire!"

The fourth floor of Haldeman-Theissan is an area braved by few students. Surely only a handful of Monmouth students have ever seen the fourth floor of HT. Arrrgh! Biology! A fate worse than death.

Dr. Robert Buchholtz came to Monmouth in 1950 and has spent the last forty years in the Biology Department. And, as unbelievable as it sounds, he loves it. He chose biology as a profession because "its always interesting, things are always changing, and there are always new challenging things to learn or create."

Having been at Monmouth for many years, Dr. Buchholtz has seen many changes in the campus. His favorite: "the change to the 3-3 concept in education was the most memorable change I enjoyed."

Buchholtz couldn't have timed his retirement more perfectly then; the shift back to the semester system begins this August. There is no doubt that he will be missed, however, by many students of biology.

"He's very concerned about the students learning," states junior Margaret Tighe. "He relates biology to their personal lives and tries to maintain a high interest level. He really loves his work."

We would like to take time out to thank him for everything he has done for our college in the past.

Women's Cross Country

Young team shows promise

Dawn Fordyce elbows out the competition to gain the lead at the MACW meet.

This year's Fighting Scots women's CC team was filled with many new faces. The team added 4 out of 8 new freshmen: Tonya Heard, Mimi Hurd, Erica Mowitz, and Dawn Taylor. The Scot's strode past the competition to finish with some of the highest standings that they've had in the last few years and Monmouth's first women regional team.

Congratulations to these players! There were also three players that gained M.V.P. and they are Chris Wheat, Chris Kittel, and Mike McMeive. Thank You for an excellent season this year.

TRACK

The Fighting Scots Track and Field teams were young and strong this year. The men won in every scored and unscored meet. Congratulations to the men who took the Conference Championship this year. MEDEA BY EURIPIDES

October 26-29, 1989

Euripides Medea was the first fall production from Crimson Masque's 1989-1990 school year. It explores the ancient myth of Jason and Medea and what happened after the two were settled in Corinth. Basically, Jason decides to marry the Princess of Corinth which of course angers Medea. She vows to get revenge and kills Creon, the Princess, and her children so Jason will suffer.

Death Trap was the final fall production the Little Theatre will ever see. It was a thriller in which the audience never knew what was going to happen next. Sidney is a playwright trying to write another producable play and teams up with Clifford Anderson, a budding playwright. The play being written deals with murder and we discover later that the characters are living the play.

The Reader's Theatre of Science Fiction/Fantasy was a new theatre experience for most members of the Monmouth College Community. It forced the audience member to actively use his or her imagination to transport himself or herself to the ends of this earth and beyond. In the selections performed the audience was introduced to concepts such as "What would happen if Boston was accidentally destroyed by the Russians?", "How much are the chemicals of the human body worth?", and "Is it possible to reproduce the effects of love by means of a pill?" Nine other stories were also performed. By the way, the answers to the above questions are: The United States negotiated with the Russians and we got to destroy Lenigrad; $1.98; and yes.

The last play was The Increased Difficulty of Concentration. It was held on April 26-29, 1990. Due to some difficulties there were no pictures available for this page.

I want to thank Danette Forbes for all her help.

GREEK LIFE

KKT

Kappa Kappa Gamma was founded at Monmouth College on October 13, 1870 by six young women. These young women wanted to establish a fraternity for women like those established for men. The six founders were: Minnie Stewart, Anna Willets, Susan Walker, Mary Bennett, Martha Stevenson, and Hannah Boyd. They attended chapel and announced the founding of Kappa by wearing gold keys in their hair.

Today Kappa has grown to 121 chapters and has a wide diversity of young women in the chapters. Last year, Kappa bought the Stewart House to help us carry on our heritage. The house fulfilled a dream that both our actives and alumni had been working toward for a long time.

Kappa has worked hard to carry on the ideals established by our founders. Kappa is involved with various philanthropies, such as sponsoring a foster child, raising money for Warren Achievement, and helping with the special Olympics. Kappa strives to maintain high scholastic standing and last year our pledge class received the Outstanding Pledge Class Award. This year at our Biauual Convention we received a silver pitcher at our Outstanding performance.

Kappa is proud of its heritage and we hope to continue shining into the future. Kappa is more than a social group it's a fraternity strengthened by a strong sisterhood.

PI BETA PHI

PI BETA PHI was founded on April 28, 1867 by twelve women. The twelve were Margaret E. Campbell, Libbie Brook Gaddis, Ada Bruen Grier, Clara Brownlee Hutchinson, Emma Brownlee Kilgore, Jennie Horne Turnbull, Jennie Nicol, Nancy Black Wallace, Rosa Moore, Inez Smith Soule, Fannie Ann Thomson, and Fannie Whitenack Libbey. Emma Brownlee Kilgore was I.C. Sorosis's first president. The crest is a lozenge on which is blazoned the Brownlee family crest. PI BETA PHI was founded at Monmouth College in Monmouth, Illinois. Some of the symbols in the fraternity are the GOLDEN ARROW which is the badge, the wine carnation which is the flower, the colors wine and silver blue, and the angel as the fraternity symbol.

As of the present time the Grand President is Carolyn Helman Lichtenberg. PI BETA PHI has seven Grand Council members and eleven National Directors. The 1989-90 academic year has been a historic year for the Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity. The Fraternity eliminated all pledging this past fall and replaced it with a Brotherhood Program based on continued education and evaluation throughout a brother's time in the fraternity. This bold step by Zeta Beta Tau is one that will insure that the fraternity experience will continue to be a positive force in the development of young men. Several other fraternities have followed the lead of Zeta Beta Tau and have eliminated the practice of pledging.

Leading the way is nothing new for Zeta Beta Tau. The Fraternity was again a pioneer back in 1954 when it was one of the first national fraternities to become non-sectarian.

Zeta Beta Tau was founded in 1898 at the City College of New York. It is an amalgamation of five separate fraternities — Kappa Nu, Phi Alpha, Phi Epsilon Pi, Phi Sigma Delta, and Zeta Beta Tau.

The Delta Lambda Chapter of Zeta Beta Tau has been chartered on the Monmouth College campus since 1971. It is the youngest of the eight current Greek organizations at Monmouth.

Though it is the youngest fraternity, Zeta Beta Tau has had a rich tradition of excellence in all aspects of campus life.

The chapter has captured the Kiwanis Award for high grade point averages among campus fraternities for ten of the last eleven years. It also has been recognized on several occasions by the national fraternity, winning several awards at the yearly convention. ZBT has always been proud of strong campus, philanthropic, social, and intramural activity.

The brothers of Delta Lambda have continued their tradition of excellence this year. This summer at convention the chapter won the Frauenthal Cup given to the chapter with the most outstanding intramural program among the fraternities 90 chapters.

The chapter also was recognized among the runners-up for the Bijur Cup for outstanding academic achievement, the Alexander "Babe" Lewin Award for outstanding alumni relations, and the Sobel Cup for outstanding campus participation.

ZBT was strong academically once again, capturing a 3.008 cumulative grade point average for second term. The 3.008 mark was highest among the five fraternities on campus. ZBT currently has 21 of its 38 members with grade point averages at or above a 3.0. Greg DeKoster, Jeff Bakker, Steve Klien, Gary Price, Ed Malter, Todd Halihan, Rob Herzog, Stacy Stoyanoff, and Kyle Davis all can boast of cumulative grade point averages above a 3.5.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Stockdale: A Representation of ATO Spirit and Courage

He was born near Abingdon, Illinois. He attended Monmouth College during 1942-43. While at Monmouth, he was a member of the local fraternity Phi Kappa Pi. Phi Kappa Pi became the Epsilon Nu chapter of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity in 1947. He was initiated into Alpha Tau Omega at Monmouth on May 19, 1989.

After attending Monmouth, he went on the U.S. Naval Academy. He graduated from there in 1946 and later became a fighter pilot, serving mostly on aircraft carriers.

He spent eight years in captivity at the infamous Hanoi Hilton POW camp, four of which were spent in solitary confinement and two in leg-irons. He was the senior POW and endured severe mental and physical torture.

He was instrumental in establishing a camp-wide "tap code" that enabled the prisoners to covertly communicate. In 1969 he was caught using this "tap code."

He underwent severe torture but resolved to make himself a symbol of resistance regardless of personal sacrifice.

He was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor by Gerald R. Ford for his gallantry.

He was the director of the Chief of Naval Operation's strategy, plans and policy division. Physical disability from combat wounds forced him to an early retirement.

He left Navy its most decorated member, wearing twenty-six personal combat decorations, including two Distinguished Flying Crosses, three Distinguished Service Medals, four Silver Star Medals, two Purple Hearts, and the Congressional Medal of Honor.

In 1981 the United States Navy initiated the "Vice Admiral James Bond Stockdale Award for Inspirational Leadership." It is the first such award ever issued in the name of a living person, and it is presented annually to a command naval officer in the Atlantic and Pacific fleets.

As a civilian, he has been the college president at the Naval War College and a college professor. He is the Chairman of the President's Commission on White House Fellowships, a member of the Board of Visitors and Governors of St. John's College of Annapolis and Santa Fe, a member of the Academic Policy Board of the United States Naval Academy, and Special Advisor to the American Leadership Forum.

He is now a Senior Research Fellow at the Hoover Institution, Stanford University. There he writes articles for a variety of periodicals and is completing books for Harper and Row, the Hoover Press, and the Portable Stanford series. In addition, he is a lecturer in Stanford's Philosophy Department and teaches undergraduate courses.

Tau Kappa Epsilon was founded on January 10, 1899 at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington, Illinois. TKE is the largest fraternity in the world. There are 320 undergraduate chapters and colonies in 46 states, Canada, and the District of Columbia.

The TKE chapter at Monmouth College is the 29th chapter or Alpha Epsilon chapter of TKE. It was founded in 1928. The chapter has had 928 members. The chapter has had many distinguished alumni ranging from professors and lawyers to even the Grand President of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The Alpha Epsilon chapter currently has 30 members. This year the chapter had ten new members: Jason Brockschmidt, Jason Elam, Torston Ericson, Jeff Thompson, Brian Miller, Dave Hernandez, John Chapman, Nick D'Alfonso, Joe Ryner, and Tom Craig. These men have been a find addition to the

Last month, the house elected its new officers who are as follows: President — Mike Bradford, Vice President — Jim Malinowski, Treasurer — Jim Mackowiak, Secretary — Joe Ryner, Historian — Jason Segebrecht, Associate Member Trainer — Bill Steckelberg, Chaplain — Jason Brockschmidt and Sergeant-at-Arms — Torston Ericson. Along with the officers, is the house advisor Jim Mills.

The members of Tau Kappa Epsilon are very involved on campus. TKE's are involved in basketball, football, baseball, track, and wrestling. Our members are also involved in S.A., IFC, and Blue Key.

Along with the participation comes many leadership roles and awards. Jon Helm and Darren Sweeney were football captains. Brent Thurness received a scholarship for athletic academics. Brian Swaw was captain of the wrestling squad, in which Brian and John Chapman went to Nationals in wrestling. Dan Nauert is a baseball captain. Todd Wetterling was elected IFC Secretary/Treasurer. Mike Bradford received a scholarship from TKE nationals.

The TKE's have also contributed their time to help others. Darren Sweeney, Jim Graham, Jarrod Hippen, Bob Innis, and Mike Bradford all volunteered to help coach YMCA basketball. Many members of TKE also helped out at the blood drive on campus. TKE also plans to help out at the Special Olympics in April.

TKE has set many goals for the up coming year. The chapter plans to improve the appearance of the House and to increase its membership. An increase in GPA is another goal set by the members. The final goal is to increase its participation in the community.

The Ravelings staff this year consisted of four freshmen and one senior. Considering they started from nothing, they did an excellent job on this years book.

To Sheldon Brown I would like to personally say thank you for all of your help this year on the Ravelings. I would also like to congratulate Sheldon on becoming the new Editor and I would like to wish him the best of luck with next year's book.

ORACLE

Above on the left, is Rob Herzog the Editor of the Oracle. The Oracle is Monmouth College's paper that is printed every week and given to the students for them to know what is in the news around the college. Students are allowed to submit anything they want to see in the paper. Students have submitted letters, articles, poems, and even drawings. Rob has put in many dedicated hours of work in making sure we have a paper. Because of this I believe he deserves a "Thank You" for all of his hard work.

COMMUNICATIONS BOARD

Not shown are Bill Wallace — Advisor, Cim Chambers — Secretary, and LaShawn McNulty — Editor of the Carolin.

The Communications Board has many different jobs assigned to them. One can tell they make sure the Oracle, Carolin, Photo Lab, and the Ravelings are run with success. The Communications Board hears what the students have to say and they take in consideration their opinion and ideas.

WMCR

Everyday one can turn on his or her radio to 630am and find one of the many Monmouth college student D.J.'s in the middle of their show. WMCR brings our campus a variety of music, talk shows, and other reports about what is going on at the campus. There are also sport broadcasts when an event is played at home. We want to thank these people for bringing us enjoyable airwaves and for them taking their time to program all of this exciting music.

CRIMSON MASQUE

Crimson Masque had an exciting and busy year. They produced four, full-length, main-stage productions as well as an evening of one-acts directed by the Directing class. They took two trips and participated in Springfest '90 with a booth for the reading of biorythms. Crimson Masque also performed in Scot Sing in early May in which they won 1st place for Batman: The Musical.

A long awaited dream of all Masquers is finally being realized with the building of the new Wells theatre. The present structure was built in 1902 as a gymnasium and given to the theatre to use as a "temporary theatre" in 1927. Sixty-three years later the "temporary theatre" is still being used and Crimson Masque members truly understand the saying that "Nothing is more permanent than that which is temporary."

Regardless of what the new Wells Theatre will bring to Crimson Masque, there will still be a bit of nostalgia as the final curtain falls in the Little Theatre this May. This is true because the Little Theatre has been our home for over sixty years. We have learned to love it even in the midst of it falling down about us. We have learned that the art of theatre is possible even in such adverse conditions when people who truly love the theatre come together and work together to achieve success.

Nonetheless, the old must make way for the new and future generations of Crimson Masque will live the reality of what we have only dreamed for over sixty years.

MORTAR BOARD

Mortar Board is an academic group which consists of people who achieve a 4.0 average in a term. This group of young men and women also have door decorations to let everyone know who has achieved this excellent grade point average. I will take this time to congratulate all of the students who achieved a 4.0 average.

A FLAME OF WHITE AND CRIMSON

Elizabeth Farell Zumstein '25

Elizabeth Farell Zumstein '25

"A Flame of White and Crimson," one of the most popular of Monmouth's songs, was written to meet a definite need. It suddenly occurred to the composer on the day before the pep meeting for the Knox football game in 1924 that there was "too much fireworks and no contrast." Inspired by a poem she had read in an old Ravelings, she hurriedly set to music her conception of her Alma Mater. In the pep meeting the following day it was featured by a trio of Katherines — K. Laws Shauman '28, K. Kruidenier Ramsdale '25, and K. Dunnan Ludlow '26 — with a chorus of thirty students dressed in "white and crimson."

A flame of white and crimson Weaves mem - 'ries shad - ow's spell, And a thou - sand hearts' de - vo - tion To the school we love so well. Thy name means hon - or, loy - al - ty and beau - ty, Ev - er be Thy strength, our strength and pride for aye. Old Mon - mouth, hail to thee.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It consists of four systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The first system ends with a double bar line. The second system ends with a double bar line. The third system ends with a double bar line. The fourth system ends with a double bar line.

As Ravelings Editor I would now like to take the time to thank a few people who were of great help to me. Those people are:

Mr. Jon Kauffman for all of his help when I was in panic about deadlines.

Mr. Thom Withenbury for the assistance when I was without pictures for certain sections of the book.

Mr. Rick Partin for the assistance when I was without copy for a certain picture.

Mr. Sudlow for understanding that I could not meet my first deadline that was set up for the pictures to be taken.

Mr. Skip Burhans for being this yearbook's Advisor.

Dean Gillogy for always offering to help me with whatever I needed.

Mrs. Gladys Free for always putting a rush job on everything I needed.

The Communications Board for giving me as a Freshman the chance to do my best on the Ravelings.

Mrs. Barb Koch, I thank you for listening to all of the problems that I have had. I also want to thank you for always telling me I could do it.

THANK YOU ALL FROM THE BOTTOM OF MY HEART

SINCERELY;
